EVERY PIECE. EVERY DAY.

By:
Debra Wilkening
Galesville Postmaster

At more than 200 billion pieces of mail a year, you could describe the United States Postal Service as an organization that delivers a "sea of mail." But, like the raindrops that feed the creeks and rivers that fill the oceans, our mailstream is filled one mail piece at a time. Each letter, flat, or parcel represents a piece of commerce, a personal correspondence, or an invitation. They are filled with bits and pieces of humanity and the things that are important to us.

Imagine in the days before the internet, the telephone, and all of the other modern technology at our disposal, what it was like to receive a letter or postcard from family that maybe lived only 20 miles away. That piece of mail was your link to the family happenings, the weather, and some small bit of information from around the area, received in a letter from another relative farther away. "Chain" letters were sent from family to family with each family adding a bit of news about them and then sending the entire letter on to the next relative. What would they have done without the US Mail?

During this holiday season, the employees of the Galesville Post Office want you to know that we don't just deliver billions of pieces, we deliver your letter, and your neighbor's parcel and your favorite catalog--one piece at a time. We value the service we can provide to you each and every day. Thank you for the opportunity to serve you! Every piece. Every day. With pride.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

On Thursday, December 18th our troop along with many other Girl Scout Troops in the area were Christmas Caroling at Marinuka Manor. We sang Christmas carols to and with the elderly that evening. The folks at Marinuka really enjoyed themselves and so did our girls.

Troop 59 also finished off one of their patches. It was our Through The Years Patch and one of our requirements was to give a basket full of goodies to the Marinuka Nurses, Aids and Staff. Our girls really got the sense of giving this season with all the wonderful donations made by our girls and the other troops in our area. Sherry Nelson the other Co-Leader and I (Jessica Conrad also a co-leader) are very proud of our girls and all the troops for the great job they did.

Due to the success of the new cheerleading squad that has been introduced into the area, the USA Girls Dance Team and Cheer Squad will be opening admission to all grade school girls.

The squad currently consists primarily of first through third grade girls from Galesville, but children grades kindergarten through sixth grade from all elementary schools are now invited to join.

USA Girls is also seeking help from dedicated seventh through twelfth graders that would be interested in earning community service through helping the younger girls. Parents are also welcome to attend practices. This is an introduction to cheer and dance, so no prior experience is required by anyone interested in becoming a part of our team.

Meetings are held every other Wednesday at the Galesville Elementary following school until 5:15pm. The USA Girls will be attending basketball games as a squad in January and February, as well as visiting nursing homes and hospitals in the area, and will be participating in various local parades over the summer. There is no fee to join, but the purchase of a uniform will be required. The cost is $38.95 plus tax and accessories. Uniforms for the current members of the team will be ordered at the first meeting of the new year on January 7, 2009, but any new members are advised to purchase uniforms at this time as well. A second order will be placed after the following meeting on January 21 and uniforms should be expected within two weeks.

When I stumbled on this ad, I was baffled.

"...designed to prevent victims from falling under the wheels of the vehicle before the driver can come to a full stop. The moment that the front of the car strikes a pedestrian, a roller is automatically dropped and made to revolve in a direction opposite to that of the wheels. The victim is thus propelled along the road until the driver can stop the car." It was 1931

What a difference a decade makes... From the Roaring 20's to the 1930's.

According to the sign in the grocery store in 1930... When you laid down $40 in 1921, you'd get a barrel (4 sacks) of flour and a 100 pound sack of sugar. That's all $40 would buy. - in 1921 a barrel of flour cost $18 and a the sack of sugar, $22 and had been up to $35 during the war.

However, In 1931 at the same store - Hammer & Enghagen, $6.60 would buy the flour, and the sugar would be $6.50.

With the remaining $26.90 you could purchase all of the following (at regular prices) (c = can;) One Package each of: cocoanut, Gold Dust, starch, buckwheat, soda, puffed wheat, all bran, rolled oats, crackers, toothpicks, macaroni, jello, peanut butter, mincemeat, chocolate, Crisco, tapioca, Oxydol, assorted fruits, cherries, grapefruit, flakes, carrots, tomato, cream of wheat, dates, currents, bottom vanilla, bottle ammonia, spaghetti, loaf sugar, rubber rings, Parowax, and steel wool; milk, one-half gallon syrup, one-half pound tea, 1 lb coffee, 2 lbs prunes, 3 lbs rice, 2 lbs beans, sack table salt, 1 lb butter, 3 lbs apples, 10 lbs choice onions, One small C. each of corn, tomatoes, beans, C. baking powder, six bars of soap, cake toilet soap, jar olives, jar pickles jar vinegar, dozen oranges, five C.s sardines, bottle bluing, large C. each of spinach, sauerkraut, salmon, pumpkin, peas, apricots, peaches, corn, pineapple, beans, creamettes, noodles, Pkg each: raisins, Postum, Crux, 10 Packages apricots, broom, mop, peck potatoes, dozen eggs, yeast, 2 lbs lard, loaf of bread, C. Corned beef, tuna fish, herring, veal loaf, cocoa, jar dried beef, mushrooms, shrimp, brown bread, jar mustard, 2 lbs cheese, C. of lye, bottle pancake syrup, Bottle grape juice, more cider, more noodles, C. of carrots and peas, bottle root beer, C. of soup, C. beef cubes, bottle salad dressing, C. Chicken broth, enough clothespins for the family wash, scrubbing brush, clothesline, bottle Certo, gallon can of pears. And twenty five cents left for candy or a treat.
